RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING-WAIVER PERIODS

With the approval of the new Basic Agreement between the players and the clubs, American League Only and National League Only waivers have been abolished.

For details on the new waiver rules, see page 47 where an outline of the new waiver rules and other essentials of the new Basic Agreement appear.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule." (a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as in the practice of the home team.
2. In All-Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

(Adopted by the American League for the 1973 season.)

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of the Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the DH role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:

- (1) A curfew imposed by law.
- (2) A time limit permissible under league rules.
- (3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.)
- (4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on.
- (5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:
  - (i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.
  - (ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

(1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds.

or

(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or

(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible.

- (i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or
- (ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

- (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.
- (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

PLAYER LIMITS—ROOKIE QUALIFICATION

PLAYER LIMITS: The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he had (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1:00 AM local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM, local time, it can be completed. Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams. This is the only curfew in the American League.

GAME WINNING RBI

"GAME WINNING RBI" is the run batted in that gives a club a lead it never relinquishes. (NOTE: There does not have to be a game-winning RBI in every game and all game-winning RBIs must conform to Rule 10.04.)

PLAYERS TO WEAR EAR FLAPS

All National Association players will wear double ear flaps. Major League players are urged to wear the double ear flap protection, but are obliged only to wear the single ear flap (except all players not wearing ear flaps in 1982 are not compelled to do so now.)

ALCS

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Boston Red Sox are pictured here celebrating on September 28, 1986, the date they clinched the A.L. East Division and began gearing up for the pressure of their second American League Championship Series (ALCS). The League Championship Series (LCS) has grown in stature and in drama since the first one played in 1969, when baseball went to divisional play.

The Baltimore Orioles swept their western opponents 3-0 in 1969, '70 and '71 ALCS, when the Series were best three-of-five contests. The dynastic Oakland A's of the early seventies evened the score with victories in the ALCS for the very next three years.

The New York Yankees and Kansas City Royals became regular rivals for the A.L. pennant in the 1970's with the Yankees prevailing in their first three LCS meetings. Yankee first baseman Chris Chambliss hit a ninth-inning homer in the '76 ALCS Game 5 to win it for New York. He was so overwhelmed by joyous Yankee fans who rushed the field that teammates insisted he retouch home plate when the stadium had emptied to be sure the winning run was scored.

In a classic power pitcher-batter confrontation, the Royals got their revenge in the 1980 ALCS. Third baseman George Brett hit a monumental home run off Yankee reliever Goose Gossage in Game 3 to give the Royals their first pennant.

The 1982 Milwaukee Brewers provided three straight nail-biters for their fans, as they lost the first two ALCS games to the California Angels in Anaheim. The Brewers proceeded to do what no other club had done—win three in a row at home and win the Series. It was small consolation to Angels outfielder Fred Lynn that he became the first player from a losing team to win the MVP award.

The new Basic Agreement of 1985 brought a new format—the series became a best four-of-seven contest. That year did not disappoint. It marked the first ALCS games played in Canada and the first post-season play for the Toronto Blue Jays. The underdog K.C. Royals won the pennant in an exciting seven-game series, marking the fifth time they participated in post-season play.

With the 1986 Red Sox on the ropes and down to their last strike, it looked as though it would be over in five with the pennant flying over Anaheim Stadium. It took a miraculous home run by outfielder Dave Henderson to breathe life back into Boston and the ALCS, which ultimately went the full seven games culminating with an American League flag for Boston in 1986.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GENE WILLIAM MAUCH—Born November 18, 1925 in Salina, Kansas; Residence: Rancho Mirage, California . . . Height: 5-10 Weight: 175 APPOINTED: October 16, 1984

Gene Mauch has guided the Angels to their most successful three seasons in club history, winning 93 games in 1982, 92 games in 1986 and 90 games in 1985 when California finished one game behind Kansas City. He and Davey Johnson are the only major league skippers to win 90-plus games their last three seasons. Mauch has completed 25 years of managerial service, ranking him in a tie for fourth with Casey Stengel and Bill McKechnie on the All-Time managerial list. Other All-Time rankings find him in the No. 5 position in total games (3,781) and No. 9 in victories (1,828). He was originally appointed the Angels' skipper May 28, 1981. After directing the club to their second Western Division title in '82, he resigned Oct. 22, 1982, citing personal reasons. Following a brief retirement, he was rehired as the Angels' Director of Player Personnel Sept. 14, 1983. Mauch eventually reassumed the reigns as field general Oct. 16, 1984. He has earned National League Manager of the Year honors on three occasions—1962, 1964 and 1973. The first two awards were gained at Philadelphia, while the latter was accomplished with Montreal. Mauch started his professional career as a shortstop in the Brooklyn organization in Durham, North Carolina in 1943. He played for six major league clubs—Dodgers, Pirates, Cubs, Braves, Cardinals and Red Sox from 1944-1957, posting a .239 career batting average. He accepted his first managerial post with the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association in 1953 at the age of 27. His first big league assignment occurred in 1960 with Philadelphia. He managed the Phillies, Montreal and Minnesota before resigning from the Twins Aug. 24, 1980. He remained out of baseball until the Angels signed him as Director of Player Personnel Feb. 12, 1981.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JAMES LOUIS FREGOSI—Born April 4, 1942, San Francisco, CA . . . Residence: Sarasota, FL . . . Married (Joni), one daughter (Jennifer) and one son (Jim) . . . Height: 6-2; Weight: 210 . . . Named White Sox manager on June 22, 1986.

Jim Fregosi became the 29th White Sox manager in franchise history and only the second Sox pilot since 1979. It is the second major league managerial job for Fregosi, who piloted the California Angels to a 237-248 record from June 1, 1978 to May 27, 1981. Fregosi came to the Angels after asking his release from the Pittsburgh Pirates for whom he was a utility infielder. Fregosi found instant success in Anaheim, leading the Angels to a 62-54 record during the remainder of the 1978 season and directing the Halos to their first divisional title in 1979. The Angels fell from the top in 1980 and Fregosi was relieved of his managerial duties mid-way through the '81 season. Following his dismissal, Fregosi spent a year away from baseball. He returned to managing in the 1982 off-season when he was named to lead the Louisville Redbirds, the St. Louis Cardinals' "AAA" affiliate in the American Association. As he had done in California, Fregosi found instant success in Louisville. The Redbirds posted the best record in the league in his first year but lost in the league championship series to Denver, the White Sox' farm club. Fregosi, though, copped the loop's manager of the year award. In 1984, Louisville won the American Association title and Baseball America named Fregosi as the minor league manager most likely to succeed in the majors. As an encore, Fregosi led the Redbirds to their second straight Association crown in 1985. The Sporting News named him "AAA" manager of the year and he shared the league's award. When he left Louisville to join the Sox, he owned a 263-232 composite record in three-plus seasons.

Howser has won a World Championship, three division titles and finished second twice . . . Howser managed the '86 A.L. All-Stars to a 3-2 win over the National League in Houston . . . it was his final '86 game as manager . . . he underwent a left frontal craniotomy July 22 at St. Luke's Hospital in Kansas City to remove a glioma (a malignant tumor) . . . he had subsequent surgery December 5 at Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena, Calif. for additional cancer treatment known as immunostimulation . . . Enjoyed perhaps his greatest managerial accomplishment in 1985 as he guided the Royals to their first-ever world championship with back-to-back remarkable comebacks in the ALCS and World Series after trailing 3-1 in games in each post-season event . . . Finished second in Baseball Writer's Manager-of-the-Year balloting in 1984 . . . Dick's 5-year record as Royals' manager is 404-365 (.525) . . . other accomplishments with the Royals include winning the second-half of the strike-shortened '81 season and winning 90 games in 1982—his first full season with the Royals . . . A veteran of 28 years in professional baseball including 25 years on the big-league level . . . managed the New York Yankees to the best record in baseball in 1980 (103-59) and the A.L. East crown . . . became only the 4th manager in the history of the game to win 100 games in his first year (Ralph Houk won 109 in 1961, Sparky Anderson won 102 in 1970 and Mickey Cochrane won 101 in 1934) . . . after a 10-year stint as the Yankees' third-base coach, Dick managed the Bronx bombers for one game (at Kansas City, coincidentally), July 24, 1978, after Billy Martin resigned and spent one season (1979) at the collegiate level as head coach at his alma mater, Florida State . . . Began his playing career in 1958 following an outstanding collegiate career at FSU . . . The Sporting News' Rookie-of-the-Year in 1961, Dick batted .280 in 158 games with the Kansas City A's and struck out only 38 times in 611 at bats—the lowest ratio in the league . . . was also a member of the '61 A.L. All-Star team . . . in 8 seasons and 789 games at the big-league level, he compiled a .248 batting average and 105 stolen bases . . . Dick holds the unusual distinction of having been honored as the Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1958) and the Professional Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1961) . . . classmate of actor Burt Reynolds from junior high through college.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ANTHONY La RUSSA, JR.—Born October 4, 1944, Tampa, FL; Residence: Sarasota, FL . . . Married (Elaine), two children . . . Height: 6-1, Weight: 190 . . . Named Manager July 1, 1986, succeeding Jackie Moore.

Tony La Russa managed the A's for the final 79 games of the 1986 season, and from the start, his impact on the team was a positive one. The A's won 10 of their first 12 games after the All-Star break. During Tony's 79 games, the A's compiled a 45-34 record (.570), and moved from a low mark of 24 games below .500 to just 10 below at the season's end. Their improved play also showed up in the standings as the A's climbed out of the AL West cellar to tie for third place with the Kansas City Royals at the end of the year. Returning to the A's is something of a homecoming for Tony. He signed his first pro contract by the then Kansas City A's in 1962. He made his major league debut just one year later with the A's. Tony went on to play professionally for 16 seasons but never spent an entire year in the majors. He played parts of four years in Oakland before finishing out his playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. His managerial career began in 1978, when he took over the White Sox' double A team in Knoxville, winning first half honors in the Southern League. In 1979, Tony was named manager of the White Sox replacing Don Kessinger. Over the next 7 years he established himself as one of the top managers in the majors. His most successful year was 1983 when the club posted a 99-63 record. He was rewarded for his efforts that year by being named "Manager of the Year" by The Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers of America. Tony graduated from Florida State University's School of Law in 1978 and passed the bar exam in December 1979. He is one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history, the other four—Monte Ward (New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, late 1880's), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1914-15)—all are in Baseball's Hall of Fame.

ANOTHER BUMPER CROP OF ROOKIES IN 1986 AND '87

A year ago on the opposite page of the RED BOOK was a brief biographical history of the clubs' selections as the most promising rookie candidates. Many of these promising rookies today are young American League stars . . . including "Rookie of the Year" Jose Canseco of the Oakland Athletics (33 homers and 117 RBIs—despite a .240 average and 175 strikeouts).

Wally Joyner of the California Angels was listed and he came through with a .290 season, 22 homers and 100 RBIs. Danny Tartabull of Seattle (now with Kansas City) hit .270 with 25 homers and 96 runs batted in.

As in several recent seasons there were many surprises and from the reports on the opposite page, there will be a lot of new outstanding young players in the A. L. in 1987.

Last year Cory Snyder of Cleveland came up in mid-season and produced a .272 average with 24 homers, 69 RBIs. The Texas Rangers came up with three top rookies . . . Pete Incaviglia (.250-30 HRs-88 RBIs) plus a rookie record 185 strikeouts. Also later in 1986, Ruben Sierra joined the Rangers, hitting 16 homers, a .254 average and was second in the league with 10 triples. Right-hander Bobby Witt was 11-9 and posted 174 strikeouts in only 157.2 innings pitched.

Other top pitching prospects emerging last season were Toronto's Mark Eichhorn and lefty John Cerutti. Eichhorn was 14-6 with 10 saves, a 1.72 ERA and 166 Ks and only 105 hits in 157 innings pitched. Cerutti was 9-4 with the Blue Jays. Eric King of Detroit had an 11-4 season with 3 saves. And there were fine first season performances from a pair of Indians' lefties—Greg Swindell and Scott Bailes, who was 10-10 with 7 saves. Lefty Dan Plesac had a 10-7 season with Milwaukee, plus 14 saves and a 2.97 ERA. The Yankees' Bob Tewksbury had a 9-5 season with a 3.31 ERA.

Among other top rookie performances from '86 was the 50 stolen bases by Chicago's John Cangelosi, the most ever by an A. L. rookie.

LEAGUE EXPLAINS FORMAT FOR 1987 SCHEDULE

The A. L. schedule uses a balanced format in which each club plays twelve games against all 13 opponents, for a total of 156 games. This includes six home contests and six away against each opponent.

However, in order to reach the seasonal total of 162 games, it is necessary to add six games to the above 156 total. This is accomplished by having each club play six additional games within its division—three home and three away, one with each club in its division.

KEY TO MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

A year of Major League service is equivalent to 172 days of the playing season. On the preceding roster pages, the column at the right indicates the length of the player's service. A designation reading "6.012" means six years and twelve days of M.L. service.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

QUALIFYING FOR LEAGUE TITLES

To assure uniformity in establishing the batting, pitching and fielding championships of professional leagues, such champions shall meet the following minimum performance standards:

BATTING

The individual batting champion or slugging champion shall be the player with the highest batting average or slugging percentage, provided he is credited with as many or more total appearances at the plate in League Championship games as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season, multiplied by 3.1 in the case of a major league player. EXCEPTION: However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest, if he were charged with the required number of plate appearances or official at bats, then that player shall be awarded the batting championship or slugging championship.

Total appearances at the plate shall include official times at bat, plus bases on balls, times hit by pitcher, sacrifice hits, sacrifice flies and times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction.

FIELDING

The individual pitching champion shall be the pitcher with the lowest earned-run average, provided that he has pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

PITCHING

The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

	Shoes with pointed spikes, similar to those used in golf and track, were not permitted.
1980	Major League umpires were required to use inside protectors when working home plate, excepting any umpire already in the Major Leagues using the outside protector.
	All players were required to have 6" (minimum) numbers on their backs.
1983	All players entering the Major Leagues beginning with the 1983 season were required to wear a single ear-flap helmet, except those players who were in the Majors during the 1982 season and who objected to wearing a single ear-flap helmet.

FIGURING BASEBALL STATISTICS

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE—Divide the total number of bases of all base hits by the total number of times at bat.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE—Divide the total number of Hits plus Bases on Balls plus Hit by Pitcher BY At Bats plus Bases on Balls plus Hit by Pitcher plus Sacrifice Flies.

INDIAN BATS REVIVE CLEVELAND CLUB TO ITS BEST SEASON IN 18 YEARS

Leading the major leagues in batting—and by a decisive margin—was a big factor in the rise of the Cleveland Indians from a 60-102 record in 1985 to 84-78 in 1986. The Tribe batted a collective .284 last season, 13 points higher than the runnerup New York Yankees.

Four Indian regulars hit over .300. Pat Tabler was at .326. He was followed by Julio Franco (.306), Joe Carter (.302) and Tony Bernazard (.301).

Carter was among the league leaders in a variety of offensive departments and led both leagues in runs batted in with 121. He was fourth in runs scored (108) and in triples (9). The Cleveland outfielder placed sixth in hits with 200, and sixth in slugging percentage at .514. Carter was fifth in extra base hits (74), fourth in total bases with 341, ninth in doubles (36) and 13th in batting at .302.

The Texas Rangers, who improved their record by a collective 24½ games last season, did it on a combination of improved pitching and hitting. Likewise, the Indians more than doubled their home attendance (1986 over '85) and the Rangers upped theirs by more than a half million.

Longest consecutive game batting streak in the American League in 1986 belonged to New York Yankees' Don Mattingly with 24.

Most Valuable Player and Cy Young Award winner, Roger Clemens of Boston, displays both prestigious awards prior to the New York Baseball Writers Dinner, where he received the two trophies.

DREAM SEASON EARNS MVP AND CY YOUNG HONORS FOR ROGER CLEMENS

He is Roger Clemens, 24-year-old right-handed ace of the Boston Red Sox pitching staff, who was a unanimous selection by the Baseball Writers of America as American League Cy Young Award winner, and who won the league's Most Valuable Player voting with 19 out of a possible 28 first place votes.

In April he set the major league mark with 20 strikeouts in a game versus the Seattle Mariners; in June he won his second Pitcher of the Month Award and was a shoo-in for the A.L. All-Star Team; by mid-July he was named MVP of that team and had hurled three perfect innings in the mid-summer classic.

In October he pitched in a winning game in the American League Championship Series and had appeared in the World Series.

Roger pitched the Red Sox to a victory following a loss on 14 occasions last year and was the A.L.'s winningest pitcher with a 24-4 record and .857 winning percentage. He also led the league in ERA at 2.48, was second in strikeouts with 238 and ranked with the league leaders in complete games and innings pitched.

The last A.L. pitcher to win Cy Young and MVP honors in the same year was Willie Hernandez of the '84 Tigers. The only other A.L. hurlers to accomplish that feat were Rollie Fingers (1981), Vida Blue (1971) and Denny McLain (1968).

See page 61 for details on Red Sox second baseman Marty Barrett's ALCS MVP award.

DON BAYLOR IS TOP DH

Veteran slugger Don Baylor of the A.L. Champion Boston Red Sox was named first on 70 of 84 ballots for the league's outstanding Designated Hitter of 1986. It is the second straight year Don received the honor and the first time a DH has won the award in consecutive years since the inception of the DH for the 1973 season, when a DH award was established. Baylor is only the fourth player to win a second outstanding DH award. He joins three-time winner Hal McRae of K.C., Greg Luzinski of the White Sox, and Willie Horton, who won as a Tiger in 1975 and as a Mariner in 1979.

Baylor slugged .459 last season and had 21 doubles, a triple and 30 home runs in 143 games as a Red Sox DH. He hit .245, drove in 92 runs (13 GW RBI), and scored 84.

He received his trophy from the league at the Boston Baseball Writers Dinner in January. The only other DH's to be named on ballots by the team PR Directors, regular writers and broadcasters, were Larry Parrish of Texas, Mike Easler of the '86 NY Yankees and Dave Kingman, who DH'd for the Oakland A's.

BBWAA NAMED JOHN McNAMARA A.L. MANAGER OF THE YEAR

John McNamara, skipper of the Boston Red Sox, won the Baseball Writers of America voting for 1986 A.L. Manager of the Year, edging Bobby Valentine of the Texas Rangers by five points. Two writers in each A.L. city voted for first, second and third place in the managerial balloting.

Mac led the Red Sox to an Eastern Division championship by 5½ games over the N.Y. Yankees and won the A.L. pennant in a dramatic come-from-behind victory over the California Angels in a seven-game ALCS.

A'S JOSE CANSECO IS TOP A.L. ROOKIE OF 1986

22-year-old Jose Canseco was the American League's Rookie of the Year for the 1986 season, as voted by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Canseco is the first Oakland player to win a rookie title and is the first A's player to win since Harry Byrd of the Philadelphia A's in 1952.

The right-handed power-hitting outfielder edged California first baseman Wally Joyner by four first place votes in the balloting (see table below), amid wide debate regarding who the league's top rookie of the season should be. (More on the A.L.'s bumper crop of rookies in '86 on page 47.)

Canseco tied for fourth in the A.L. with 33 home runs and was second to Cleveland's Joe Carter in the RBI race (121-117), despite hitting .240 for the season.

Canseco was Oakland's representative on the league's 1986 All-Star squad on the strength of a great first half in which he established himself as a tape-measure home run hitter.

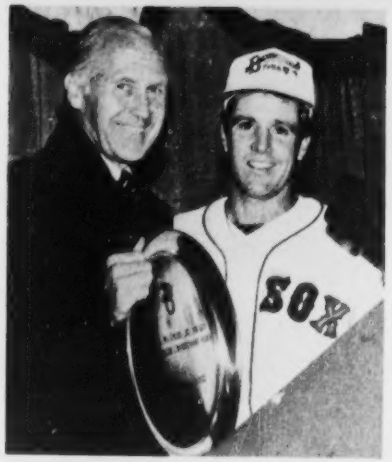
EARLY A.L. MVP WINNERS

The Baseball Writers Association of America officially balloted and named the Most Valuable Player in each major league since 1931. The earlier awards were known as the Chalmers (automobile) Award (1911-14) and then the league made the award from 1922 through 1928. Under league rules, no player could repeat as winner. The early winners are listed at the right.



ALCS MVP MARTY BARRETT RECEIVES L. S. MAC PHAIL, JR. AWARD

Second baseman Marty Barrett won the second annual L. S. MacPhail, Jr. Award which is presented to the Most Valuable Player of the American League Championship Series.

Marty hit .367 in the seven-game series with 11 hits in 30 at-bats. He drove in five runs and walked twice versus the California Angels.

Marty is pictured above receiving the L.S. MacPhail, Jr. Award from A.L. President Dr. Bobby Brown immediately after ALCS Game 7 at Fenway Park. The award was established last year in the name of the long-time baseball executive and retired American League President. George Brett of Kansas City was the first recipient.

As a "most valuable player" Marty Barrett also received a Chevrolet vehicle to be donated to a charity of his choice. Marty chose the Candlelighters for Childhood Cancer to receive his Chevrolet award.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES MVP'S

The American League has recognized the Most Valuable Players of the League Championship Series since 1980. Four of the five winners have come from the pennant-winning club. Fred Lynn won the award in 1982 despite the Milwaukee Brewers victory over California.

RIGHETTI OWNS M.L. RECORD WITH 46 "SAVES" IN 1986

Left-hander Dave Righetti, ace of the New York Yankee bullpen, set the Major League mark with 46 "saves" in 1986. The previous record of 45 was shared by K.C.'s Dan Quisenberry and Atlanta's Bruce Sutter.

Righetti appeared in 74 games in relief—second to Texas' Mitch Williams (80)—and finished the season 8-8 with a 2.45 ERA, 83 strikeouts and 106.2 innings pitched.

Baltimore's Don Aase was second in the American League with 34 "saves" for the Orioles in 66 games. Aase's first 20 "saves" were notched prior to the 1986 All-Star Game (in which both he and Righetti appeared as first-time All-Stars).

The other A.L. relief specialists to log 20-or-more "saves" in '86 were Toronto's Tom Henke (27), Willie Hernandez of Detroit (24), Donnie Moore of California (21), Cleveland's Ernie Camacho (20) and Greg Harris of Texas (20).

1987 EQUITABLE OLD TIMERS SERIES

The 1987 Equitable Old Timers Series kicks off on Saturday, May 17th in St. Louis. As in 1986, each Major League ballpark will host an Equitable Old Timers Game, highlighted by the All-Star Old Timers Game Sunday, July 12th in Oakland.

Last year, 621 former Major Leaguers participated in the series, including 34 Hall of Famers. For their efforts, Equitable donated $260,000 ($10,000 per game) to the Baseball Alumni Team fund. In 1987, Equitable will again contribute $10,000 per game to the B.A.T.

Following is the schedule of Equitable Old Timers Games scheduled for A.L. parks in 1987:

Date	Home Team	Visiting Team	Local Game Time
May 23	Boston	Chicago White Sox	1:05 PM
May 30	Toronto	California	1:15 PM
June 6	Milwaukee	New York Yankees	7:35 PM
June 14	Seattle	Cleveland	1:35 PM
June 21	California	Kansas City	1:05 PM
July 11	New York Yankees	Chicago White Sox	1:30 PM
July 12	Oakland	Milwaukee	2:05 PM
July 26	Chicago White Sox	New York Yankees	1:30 PM
August 1	Texas	Milwaukee	7:35 PM
August 1	Kansas City	Boston	7:05 PM
August 8	Minnesota	Oakland	7:05 PM
August 16	Baltimore	Milwaukee	2:05 PM
August 22	Cleveland	Detroit	1:35 PM
August 30	Detroit	Texas	1:30 PM

The baseball field at Hiram College (Hiram, OH) was named for alumnus Robert O. Fishel and dedicated last summer in ceremonies attended by several baseball dignitaries; including A.L. President Dr. Bobby Brown, ex-A.L. President Lee MacPhail, and hosted by President Russell Aluto of Hiram. They posed here with league Executive Vice President Bob Fishel in front of the Robert O. Fishel Field plaque, just prior to the day's game in which he threw the ceremonial first pitch.

OAKLAND 1987 ALL-STAR GAME ™

The 58th All-Star Game will be played in the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum on July 14, 1987. The home team American League's Oakland A's will host their first mid-summer classic.

1985 CHANGES IN MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVERS

SUBSTANTIVE

- The "trading deadline" is now July 31. Waivers are required for any inter- or intra-Major League assignment during the period beginning August 1 and ending at 5 pm ET the day after the end of the season. During the other ten months of the year no waivers are needed.
- It will be easier to compute which players need waivers before they may be optioned: if three years (less one for each previously spent on option) have elapsed since the player actually reported to the Major Leagues for the first time, waivers are required. The date of actual physical reporting will be used as the benchmark instead of the date the player was first placed on a club's 40-man roster.
- The procedure for outright assignments to the National Association remains unchanged from the 31st day of each season until August 31; during this period ordinary waivers are required. However, from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season, special waivers are required.

  The club must tender a special waiver request specifying that waivers are requested for the purpose of outright assignment to the National Association. The claiming period, as with other waivers, is three business days, and an assignment pursuant to special waivers must be completed by 2 pm ET the seventh day after the waivers were secured.
- Seventy-two hour waivers, secured on players recalled not to report, continue unaffected except insofar as they no longer suffice for an outright assignment to the National Association during those times in the year when special waivers are required.

PROCEDURAL

- Waiver requests deadline is now 2:00 pm Eastern Time.
- Claiming period is now three business days for all waiver requests, including "special waivers" and waivers for the purpose of unconditional release.
- AL Only and NL Only waivers have been abolished.
- In the event of claims, withdrawals period is two business days.
- A club may withdraw once per waiver period on any one player.
- New waiver periods:
  - November 11 – 30th day of season
  - 31st day of season – July 31
  - August 1 – November 10
- "Special waivers" and waivers for the purpose of unconditional release may both be requested during the closed period, October 10 – November 10.
- Waiver price for selected and draft-excluded players is now $25,000, and may be set by agreement ($20,000 minimum) in all other waiver assignments. Rules on priority of claim are unchanged.
- Closed period on selected and draft-excluded players now runs from October 10 through the 25th day before Opening Day, and no assignments may be made pursuant to such waivers until 15 days before Opening Day. "Dates to Remember" from the league offices will specify the correct dates each year.

CAREW RETIRES AFTER 19 SEASONS IN AMERICAN LEAGUE; HIT .328 IN CAREER

Batting over .300 for 15 consecutive years in a distinguished 19-year career with the Minnesota Twins and California Angels, Rodney Carew retired last season with the highest lifetime batting average of any current player . . . a sparkling .328.

The 41-year-old native Panamanian was named to 18 American League All-Star teams and played in 15 games (he was replaced due to injuries in three seasons).

His 3,053 hits places him in 13th place on the all-time base hit list, ahead of Hall of Famers Lou Brock, Al Kaline and Roberto Clemente. Seven times he led the American League in batting, reaching his all-time high in 1977 with a .388 mark (he was over .400 for a substantial portion of the season) and was named A. L.'s Most Valuable Player as well as Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

He stole a total of 353 bases in his career and stole home seven times in the 1969 season.

Carew owns a host of other major league and American League records, offensive and defensive (at both first and second base). Carew played in four league championship series. He was the A.L.'s Rookie of the Year in 1967.

A retirement tribute was staged by the Angels last summer at Anaheim Stadium in which Dr. Bobby Brown, the American League president, presented Carew with an appropriate commemorative trophy.

Bobby Grich

BOBBY GRICH CALLS IT A CAREER AFTER 16 YEARS IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Bobby Grich's 16-year American League career ended last season when he announced his retirement following the close of his 10th season with the California Angels. In that time, he batted a collective .266 with 224 home runs, 864 RBIs in 2008 games.

He posted a career .983 fielding percentage (mostly at second base) and still owns the major league record for highest fielding percentage for a second baseman in a season . . . .9956 for the Angels in 1985.

Bobby played in five A. L. Championship Series and was an American League All-Star six times. The Angels will honor Bobby with a "day" on May 1, 1987.

Two other American Leaguers announced their retirements over the off-season. Dennis Leonard of the Kansas City Royals, called it quits after a valiant comeback effort last season. Dennis compiled a 144-106 record with two twenty-win seasons in his career.

Texas' Toby Harrah, who will manage in the Rangers' minor league system next season, also announced his retirement from the playing field after a 16-year career that began with the Washington Senators in 1969.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PASSES 25 MILLION IN RECORD SEASON

For the fourth time in the last five years, the American League set a new, all-time sports league attendance record in 1986. In setting the new record, the league passed the 25 million mark for the first time with a paid count of 25,172,732.

The 1986 season also marked the first time that all 14 clubs in the league went over the million mark. And five teams surpassed two million. The league leader was the Western Division champion California Angels with 2,655,872. Last year's defending World Champion Royals set team record of 2,320,794 while the Texas Rangers also set a new club home mark with 1,692,002 fans at Arlington Stadium.

The resurgent Cleveland Indians registered the league's greatest increase, more than doubling their 1985 attendance. The Rangers, who vaulted into second place in the A.L. West, had an attendance increase of nearly 600,000.

RULES FOR SPRING TRAINING STANDINGS

Games which count in the standings during spring training include all "A" games, including split squad contests and games against Japanese major league teams. Those games which do not count are those designated as "B" games or played against minor league or college competition.

A 12-6 victory by the A.L. Media Softball Team (pictured left) over the N.L., in the Annual Meetings Classic, played last December in Hollywood, Florida, gave the American League a 2-1 edge in the series and its second consecutive win. Miami Herald writer, Tony DeMarco, was the game's MVP.
